SOLDIERS' DISCHARGES, -Almost daily ties are paying for them different sums, ranging from $100 to $500 each. We know of no party in this city who is buying discharges, and do not believe there is any one engaged in it, although the control of the contr anybody else. In the first place, they are an honorable certificate of hard service for the country; and secondly, service for the country; and secondly, if Congress passes a land bounty act, the discharged soldier will need to be considered to be considere inducement for parties to buy them, other than that advanced by a cotempurchased by rebel soldiers, who go into strange communities and use them to obtain position in sectety. This is certainly plausible, for what better introduction would a man need than an henorable discharge from the United honorable discharge from the United States service? We say, again, to all of our returned soldiers: hold on to

A LARGE CITY GARDEN .- A gentle- variety and at fair prices. man of our acquaintance proposes to purchase about 9 acres of ground on the sland and establish a large city garden. He thinks, and we agree with his it could be made to pay. Its convenience to the city would be a great show in its favor. We feel confident that the gentleman referred to, if he once under takes the matter, will put it well through, and to the entire satisfaction of our city consumers of vegetables.— It is desired to have the matter gone in-

TOOK THE OATH .- Among the minis-Agos THE OATH.—Among the minis-ters who yesterday took out license to marry, in our court, was the Rev. E. T. Perkins, formerly of this city. It will be remembered that several years ago he left his congregation here, went South and east his lot with the rebellion Some weeks ago he came back, and now designs, we understand, remaining here. In order to take out his lice oath of allegiance to the United States and to the State of WestVirginia, which he did, we learn, with considerable bad

NEW FIRM .- We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in our paper to-day of Messrs. Gorrel & Co. This firm is composed of experienced business men — well and favorably known in our community. The firm will always have on hand a full stock of Farming Implements, Produce, Seeds, &c., &c., which will be disposed of at low rates to purchasers.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE LADY.-We regret to announce to our readers that information has been received in this city of the death, at Lowellsville, Mahoning county, Ohio, on the 20th inst., of Mrs. Dr. John Kirker. The deceased had many acquaintances in this city formed while her husband was stationed here in charge of the post hospital, who will very much regret to hear of her death. She left an infant

The spirit of decoration and im-provement is ever breaking out in some new spot. For some days past the arti-sans of the brush have been at work on the front of T. H. Logan & Co's. Drug Store, and have so improved its ap-pearance that the proprietors have several times passed it without recognizing their place of business.

The rooms formerly occupied by Jas.

R. Baker, are being handsomely painted and refitted. One of them will be occupied by R. Porter & Sons, as occupied by R. Forter & Sons, as a wholesale shoe store, and the other is already occupied by our enterprising young friends Spidel & Inderrieden (late of Monroe street,) as a wholesale plain and fancy grocery. We are gisd to see them expanding themselves; it is an evidence that their careful attention to business is meeting its proper re-ward. The best of canned fruits and fine groceries of all descriptions, are al-ways in their hands. Give them a call.
